

WISE REBATE SUMMARY

RESIDENTIAL, COMMERCIAL AND INSTITUTIONAL APPLICATIONS EFFECTIVE 1/1/10

ELECTRIC AIR CONDITIONERS AND/OR HEAT PUMPS

Permanently-installed split, single-packaged and through-the-wall units qualify; window units DO NOT QUALIFY.

- ◆ AIR CONDITIONERS (that meet minimum Energy Star SEER rating plus 2)
50/50% MATCH - $100.00 per ton ($50.00 OMPA/$50.00 City)
(payable to Homeowner or Builder of SPEC home)
- ◆ AIR-SOURCE HEAT PUMPS (that meet minimum Energy Star SEER rating plus 1)
50/50% MATCH - $250.00 per ton ($125.00 OMPA/$125.00 City)
(payable to Homeowner or Builder of SPEC home)
- ◆ DUAL-FUEL HEAT PUMPS (Air-source or Geothermal) (that meet minimum Energy Star SEER/EER rating plus 1)
50/50% MATCH - $250.00 per ton ($125.00 OMPA/$125.00 City)
(payable to Homeowner or Builder of SPEC home)
- ◆ GEOTHERMAL HEAT PUMPS (that meet minimum Energy Star EER rating plus 1, and have an operating Integrated Water Heater or Desuperheater for domestic water heating)
50/50% MATCH - $800.00 per ton ($400.00 OMPA/$400.00 City)
(payable to Homeowner or Builder of SPEC home)
- ◆ Rebates will not be approved for locations already rebated, unless significant building additions justify additional air conditioners/heat pumps, or at least 10 years has elapsed since the last rebate was approved for that location.
- ◆ Dual-fuel heat pump systems must be installed and maintained under the following conditions:
 - 1) Setpoint of outdoor thermostats must not exceed 40° Fahrenheit.
 - 2) Whenever outdoor temperatures exceed 40° Fahrenheit, the auxiliary heat source will only operate when the indoor thermostat is manually set on the emergency heat mode.

 City may rebate at any level. OMPA will match on a 50/50% basis up to the amounts shown above.

Note: 1. Current Energy Star minimum ratings used by this program are 14.0 SEER for air conditioners and air-source heat pumps, and 14.1 EER for closed-loop geothermal heat pumps.
2. All rebate standards and amounts are subject to review and change as deemed necessary by the O.M.P.A. Board of Directors.
